Special Interests:

Parishioner at St. Michael's Catholic Community. Wife and Mother of 4 children who is passionate about spending time with family and friends, traveling, practicing yoga, entertaining and savoring life's precious gifts.

Why Catholic Education is Important:

Catholic Education is important because it grounds our most precious resources: our Students and our youth in an institution where they are all equally cared for and respected while receiving a high-quality education fostering individual success. I am an advocate for children who volunteers for the Alex Centre in Calgary preparing meals for troubled teens.
